

Transitions

Tuesday 2 June, 5.30pm - 8pm, Atkin Building

Transitions: Next steps and further opportunities...

As you move from one stage of legal education to the next, you may benefit from some advice and information on the ways that The City Law School can help you stand out in a crowded recruitment market by becoming a specialist in your chosen field.

Our Transitions events are designed to do just that. School staff will be available to advise you on what additional study options may be suitable for you, or to give you the benefit of their experience within the profession. Careers advice will also be available.

Where: Student Common Room, Atkin Building, Gray's Inn

When: Tuesday 2 June 2009, from 5.30pm to 8.00pm

The event is intended for students who are interested in the possibility of taking an LLM or M.Jur at The City Law School, and there will be short talks on each of these options.

Come along and discuss your options...register online today!

Kind regards,

Susan Blake

Associate Dean for Learning & Teaching

The City Law School

PS: There may be a limit on the number of students that can attend on the evening, so early booking is advised as places will be offered on a first come, first served basis!

Plus: Sharing progress, sharing experience...

The event will also be an informal "social" for those who are already on any CLS Masters course, or on the Part-time BVC. Students are invited to come along and enjoy a glass of wine and discuss their progress with fellow students, supervisors and staff.

Throughout the event, refreshments will be served in the Student Common Room, where you will be able to talk to other CLS students and staff about your plans and needs for the coming year and beyond.

Don't miss out... register online today!
